LETTER FROM THE DIRECTORS:

Greetings and salutations!

The successful test of the Oscillation Overthruster, along with the release of the documentary/dramatization "The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai," has once again put Team Banzai in the spotlight. The Institute has been inundated with correspondence from honest folk across the nation seeking additional information, memorabilia and admission to the Blue Blaze Irregulars. Dr. Banzai has asked us to take some of the heat off Mrs. Johnson, a request we feel honored to oblige. Thus, having been granted Class B/Grade One Security Clearances by Reno and Perfect Tommy, operation of the Official Buckaroo Banzai Fan Club will be administered through the offices of Twentieth Century Fox (our thanks to these good people for their cooperation) by the six of us in our spare time. Now, we're busy people here, and volunteers to boot, so if The Blue Blaze Irregular Newsletter is a bit irregular, we trust you'll understand.

Like Buckaroo Banzai himself, you will find this newsletter going in several directions at once. Interspersed with the usual Institute information, activity reports and just plain gossip, we have included updates on W. D. Richter and the intrepid band of filmmakers who brought "The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai" to the silver screen. To director Richter and his assistant Dan Lipovitz for giving generously of their time and files, our grateful appreciation. We will continue to declassify and circulate the material they have provided in future newsletters.

We hope to keep receiving letters of comment, reports on local chapter activities, questions, cartoons, anecdotes and items for the Bulletin Board from all of you. We will endeavour to keep you up-to-date on the news continually breaking around Buckaroo Banzai. You will find some information inside on memorabilia now available; we will notify you of any other items (such as T-shirts, caps, bumper stickers, still photos, etc.) we may be able to offer you in the future. We will also let you know of any sf/fantasy/media conventions at which members of Team Banzai will be present.

Finally, we'd like to welcome any new Blue Blazes to our ranks, and thank you for writing to the Institute. Although there are no plans as yet to film a sequel to "The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai," Team Banzai and Team Richter would like to join forces again. Dr. Banzai often says, "Today's impossibility is tomorrow's reality." We hope that one day soon we'll meet you all in the line party at the world premiere of "Buckaroo Banzai Against the World Crime League".

UPDATE: W. D. RICHTER (director)

EARL MAC RAUCH (writer)

W. D. Richter is presently developing "Hot Tamales" (scripted by Earl Mac Rauch) and writing "Big Trouble in Little China," both for Twentieth Century Fox, as well as writing "Slobs in Space" for Warner Bros. Earl Mac Rauch has recently completed the screenplay for "Wired," another Warner Bros. film. Write them c/o:

Nearby, Professor Hikita furrowed his brow in resolute concentration. "Now it's in the lap of the gods," I heard him murmur.

THE NEW HAVEN CONNECTION

Our New York Office Blue Blazes, Sunshine and D.J., traveled to New Haven, Connecticut on April 4 to see Peter Weller in a production of Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." The play was excellent and Peter's portrayal of Brick was sensitive and intense. Our two BBIs can be forgiven for thinking that the man they met after the show was, indeed, our beloved Buckaroo. He greeted them in a black leather Team Banzai jacket, and exhibited all the warmth and friendliness we know and love in our Boss. Peter was very pleased to get a first-hand report on Institute goings-on, and the BBIs were glad to have the chance to chat with our leader's alter-ego (who doesn't get to stop by the Institute's offices very often...) Too bad Buckaroo had the Jet Car with him--the BBIs got stranded for a while in New Haven and didn't check back into the Institute till 4:00 a.m. Not to worry--they killed time by calling Mrs. Johnson long distance from the train station to report on a thoroughly delightful evening!

UPDATE: PETER WELLER (Buckaroo Banzai)

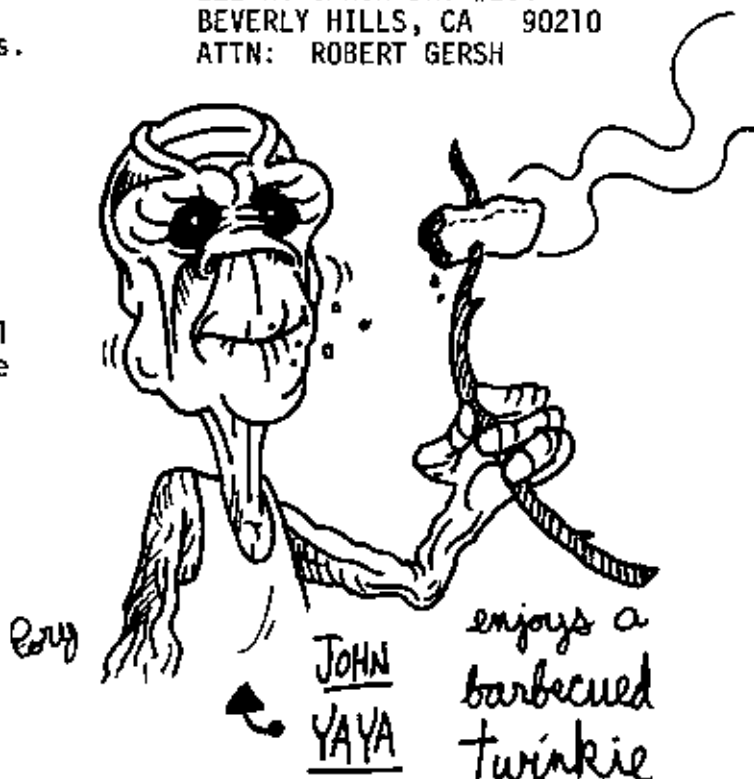

Peter Weller, last seen in Paramount's "Firstborn," has been working on stage (see THE NEW HAVEN CONNECTION) as well as recently completing work on the film "Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday," for Tomorrow Entertainment. He is now preparing for a role in the upcoming feature "The Estate of Billy Bruckner." Write c/o:

A FOND FAREWELL

...to Simon P. "Sourdough" Porter, who is retiring after thirteen years as the Institute's groundskeeper. Through his careful program of collecting and seeding native wildflowers, Sourdough is responsible for many of the grounds' more scenic areas. He will be returning to his family home in Wyoming and a senior position at Devil's Tower National Park, where he will also resume his study of plateau grasses. Reno and Pecos will accompany Sourdough to Wyoming, stopping on the return trip for a holiday in South Dakota.

BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN

Rawhide, Sam and Dr. Hikita's lab assistant McIlvaine thank all those who sent cards during their recent convalescence. Dr. Banzai assures us that they suffer no lasting ill effects, and credits both the cooperation of the Black Lectroids plus New Jersey's skilled assistance for our team members' swift recoveries.

UPDATE: CLANCY BROWN (Rawhide)

Clancy Brown stars as Viktor, the Monster for whom "The Bride" is created in Columbia's 8/16/85 release. He also appears in "Thunder Alley," a Cannon release slated for 9/20/85, and has just completed work on "Highlander," a fantasy from Twentieth Century Fox.

PIT STOP FOR JET CAR

The Jet Car remains on blocks while Perfect Tommy reworks the front suspension. Dr. Banzai reported some handling difficulties while returning the last of Lord Whorfin's minions to the Eighth Dimension. HB88 is also due for a new paint job; in order to settle a difference of opinion between Reno and Perfect Tommy, the Boss is considering suggestions from the rest of Team Banzai and the Blue Blaze Irregulars.

SNEAK ATTACK ON HACKENSACK

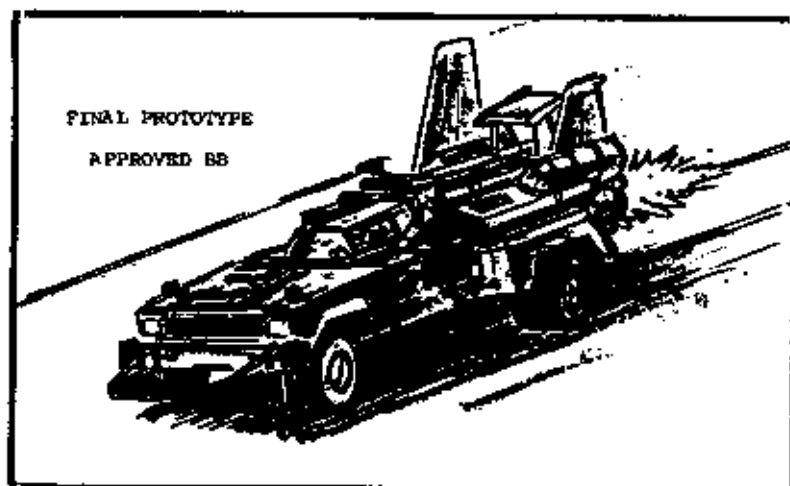

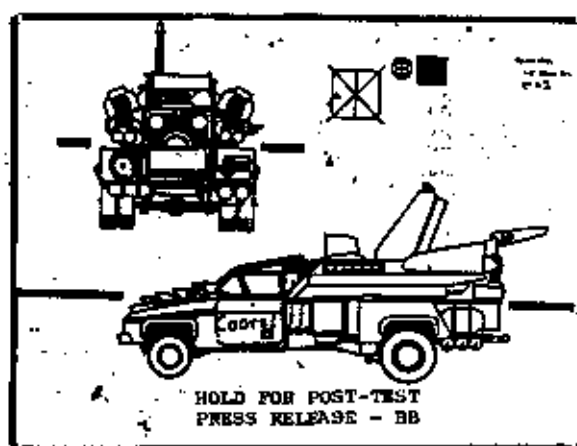

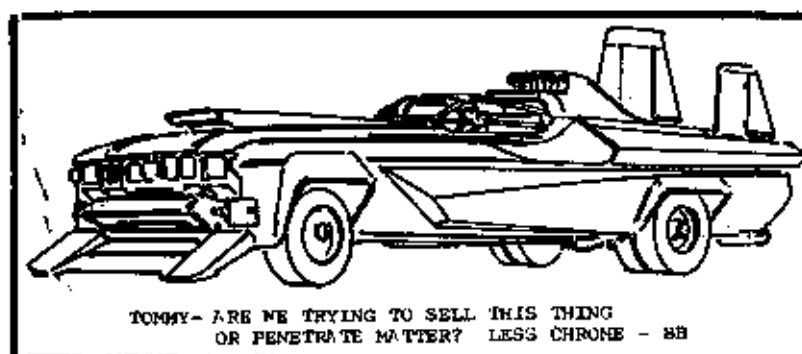

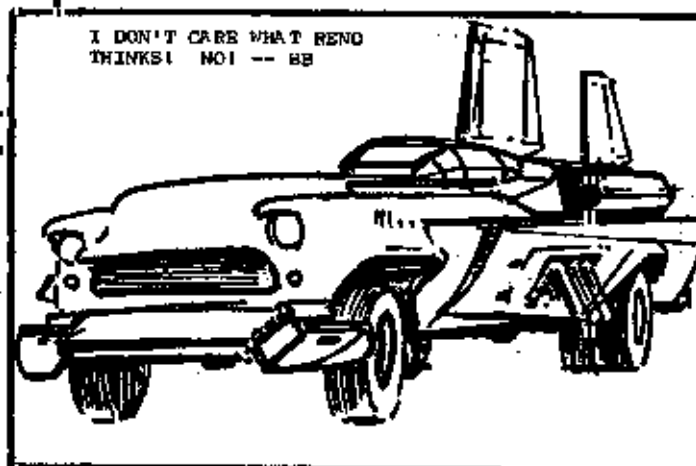

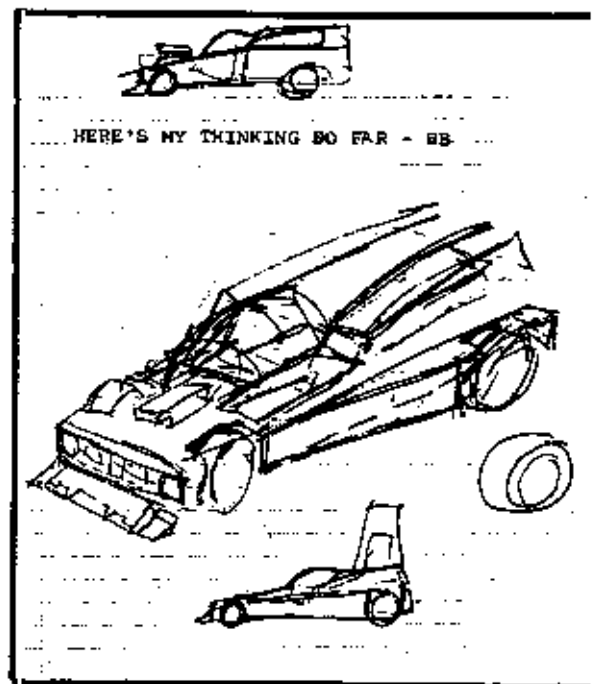

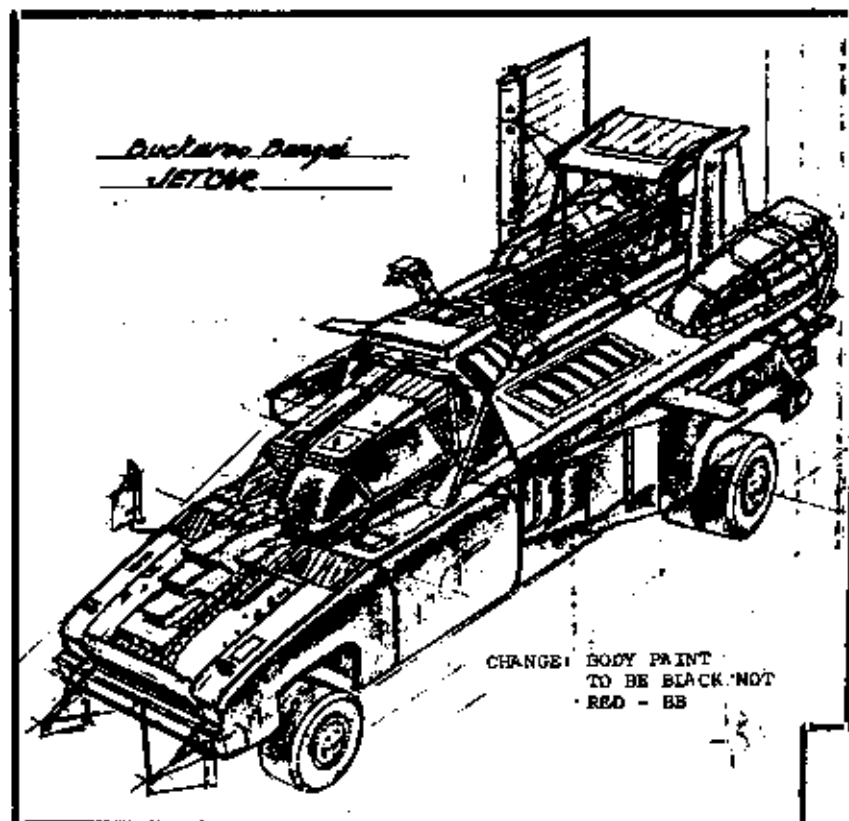

The Hong Kong Cavaliers pulled off a surprise performance at Hackensack's own Kandoo Club last Thursday. To avoid the pandemonium generated by their last small club appearance, the band was billed as "Roscoe and the Phonics." The ruse lasted until Pinky Carruthers' arrival in a RugSucker van one half-hour prior to showtime. The remaining tickets sold quickly... Highlights of the 75-minute set included the debut of Perfect Tommy's latest composition "Face Value," and an impromptu cover version of Tom T. Hall's "I Can't Dance" as an encore. The latter afforded New Jersey a chance to prove that, indeed, he can...

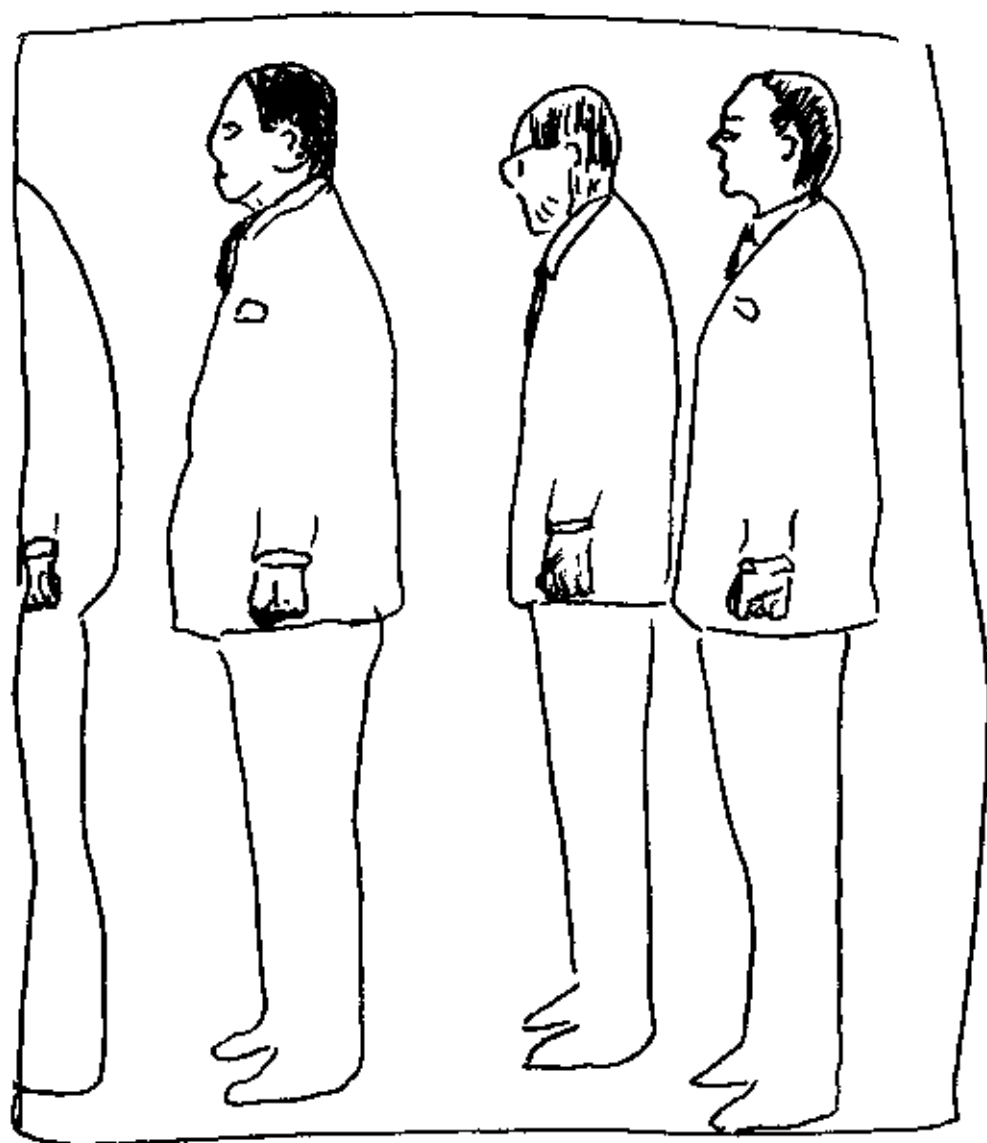

NO ACCESS

In the interest of public safety, all tours of Yoyodyne Propulsion Systems Inc. have been postponed indefinitely. Fearing that the Lectroids' extensive sub-foundation tunneling may have seriously weakened many of the buildings, the site remains closed to the public until a structural analysis can be completed. The Department of Health also feels that access should be restricted until the source of a persistent nauseating odor common to many of the structures can be analyzed.

PINKY CARRUTHERS TAKES THE CAKE

Members of the Los Angeles chapter of the Blue Blaze Irregulars were treated to some fine rhythm and blues when they gathered at The Palomino Club in North Hollywood on April 19 to see Billy and the Beaters. As you know, singer/songwriter/guitarist Billy Vera portrayed our own Pinky Carruthers, and saxophonist Gerald Peterson did duty as both a RugSucker and one of the Hong Kong Cavaliers, in the recent documentary/dramatization "The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai." Before the band began their lively set, a pink cake bearing the inscription "Rock On, Pinky" was delivered to the stage (in a big pink box). To avoid any misconceptions as to the origin of this gift, a fan club flyer attached. Halfway through the show, Billy took a moment to both acknowledge the cake and the LABBIs, and to explain to the uninitiated members of the crowd just what this was all about... After donning a Team Banzai headband, Billy rallied the Beaters to a rousing wrap of their first set. Many thanks to all the LABBIs who joined us, and to Billy and the Beaters for a fine show...

HI, CALYPSO!

During his recent visit to Washington D.C. for his 75th birthday celebration, renowned oceanographer and honorary Banzai Institute resident Jacques Cousteau traveled north to spend a day as a guest of the Institute. Besides touring the Research Building, he spent several hours with Pecos and the Seminole Kid, discussing their recent adventure aboard the Calypso. The evening's clam-bake was made memorable by Cousteau's anecdotes, and the Captain was happily pressed into service as judge for the annual Jello Salad Competition. Scooter Lindley took top honors for his amazingly accurate Jet Car sculpture in grape jello.

WANTED—DOWSER

Due to the recent unfortunate incident during the Lectroid invasion of the Institute, we are no longer enjoying delivery of our bottled water. Since everyone has a reason for not being the one to truck it in, can anyone offer an alternative suggestion? If so, see Rawhide.

ABOUT THAT WATERMELON...

Reno told us, but before we tell you, we'd like to hear your explanations as to "Why is there a watermelon there?" Use your imagination! The best of your answers will be published in the next newsletter. Send your speculations to the Institute today! Remember...
